IT ALL STARTED WITH A TOASTER

From humble beginnings selling camp toasters in Winnipeg, Coghlan's has grown over the past 60 years to become the largest single brand of outdoor accessories in the world. It all started because our founder thought it would be cool to make toast for breakfast while camping. So he sold a camp toaster. It was easy to use and it worked. People loved it.

Since then, we've built our reputation as the first choice in outdoor accessories by providing superior products, packaging, and customer service. Our focus continues to be on creating intuitive and desirable products that make the outdoors more enjoyable – just like the camp toaster did. Whether you're camping, fishing, hiking, or relaxing in the backyard, our tried and tested products are an essential part of the experience and create little moments of delight.
